Discover Amsterdam

Why stay in your meeting room when you're in Amsterdam? We take you on a discovery tour before, after or even in between your meetings. The Conservatorium hotel welcomes guests with typical Dutch pastries to enjoy in the meeting room and a lunch with Dutch surprises. The meeting rooms are decorated with the most colorful Dutch flowers by our very own house florist Menno Kroon. Your guests will receive a special selected book about the beautiful capital city of The Netherlands, Amsterdam. To discover the city in real life, guests have a choice between a one-hour walking or bicycle guided Urban Tour through Amsterdam.

Wellness in the city

Take care of body and mind during a day full of meetings. The Conservatorium hotel offers the ultimate package that combines wellness with a successful meeting in the heart of Amsterdam. A healthy menu is available alongside a selection of light dishes, herbal teas, refreshing juices and energizing drinks. During breaks or after your meeting, our spa specialists will let you experience a chair massage to relax or enjoy a short energizer with a personal trainer. Akasha Holistic Wellbeing Centre's personal trainer facilities are among the best in Amsterdam, combining the knowledge of industry professionals with fully dedicated personal trainers. After your meeting, guests may join an introduction to mindfulness in the workspace session or a specially designed bootcamp session in the Vondelpark or Akasha Gym. To finalize the wellness in the city experience, a personalized shaker will be provided as a gift to all your guests.

Inspired by Art

With the best museums in The Netherlands (or even Europe) on our doorstep, let yourself be inspired by the arts, while planning meetings in the Conservatorium hotel. Our exceptional address means you can be at the Van Gogh museum before you can even pronounce its name. Enjoy a colourful guided tour with your team through the Van Gogh museum or a guided architectural tour through the city. During the day, our floor to ceiling windows fill the meeting room with natural day light; showcasing the beautifully selected Dutch seasonal flowers. You will be welcomed with coffee and tea, featuring special Dutch Masters pastries and end the day in Tunes Bar where you can enjoy our Van Gogh inspired cocktails. As a finishing touch, Van Gogh books for all participants will be provided as a souvenir to take home.
