Hotel Café Royal

Established 1865

Historic Regent Street entrance.

A London legend reborn

True to its original glamorous spirit, Café Royal has reopened as a luxury hotel in the heart of central London, with elegant Mayfair to the west and creative Soho to the east. In its reincarnation this iconic London landmark now features 160 contemporary guestrooms, including 49 suites and six signature suites.

Continuing its celebrated legacy, Hotel Café Royal offers a selection of restaurants and bars for guests to enjoy and to complete the full experience, the Akasha Holistic Wellbeing Centre offers a large lap pool, Watsu pool, sauna and Hammam/steam room and features a range of signature treatments which marry innovative Western practices with ancient Eastern traditions.

A variety of dedicated event spaces seamlessly blend the grandeur of Café Royal, and its Grade II listed architecture, with modern design and contemporary features – creating the perfect backdrop for any style of wedding or civil ceremony.

The Pompadour Ballroom

The ornately gilded and beautifully restored ballroom, is the largest and most decadent event space. A series of fluted Corinthian pilasters and mirrored panels with gilded frames are accented further by a rich decorative ceiling which elaborately depicts scenes of love. Large double doors lead onto a pillared outdoor terrace with views up and down the sweep of Regent Street.

In contrast, a selection of varying sized reception rooms feel modern and airy with large windows offering views across central London. These can be styled and personalised in order for you to add your exacting touches and special signature.

Professional wedding planners consult closely with you on every last detail, from flowers and entertainment to seating arrangements, hair, make-up and menus. Executive chef, Andrew Turner, is proud to offer his culinary expertise and the discreet service perfects every detail, from arrival to departure.

Guestrooms & Suites

Created in rusticated Portland stone to mirror the elegant Regent Street façade, or panelled in fumed English Oak, 160 contemporary guestrooms and suites give an incredible sense of place and have been designed to feel like private apartments at the heart of the capital. Amongst this collection, six signature suites are reminiscent of Café Royal's glorious past, each boasting a unique character and aesthetic.

Weaving historical detail with contemporary design, the Empire Suite is the largest suite at Hotel Café Royal. 212sqm/2,282sqft.

Restaurants and Bars

At the heart of the hotel, the Ten Room offers British informal dining all day.

Fronting Regent Street, The Café celebrates the European tradition of café culture. It offers a light menu of seasonal dishes alongside an espresso bar and counters lined with cakes, pastries and chocolates; these are created fresh every day by Hotel Café Royal's in-house executive pastry chef.

Restaurants and Bars

Inspired by the Café Royal Cocktail Book compiled in 1937, the Green Bar at Hotel Café Royal is a vibrant cocktail destination both for contemporary Londoners and hotel guests.

Originally established in 1865, the Oscar Wilde Bar, formerly the legendary Grill Room, is the jewel of Hotel Café Royal. Restored to its original Louis XVI décor, it is now the place to enjoy afternoon tea, Champagne, sparkling wines and a light menu, complemented by live entertainment on select evenings.

Akasha

The Akasha Holistic Wellbeing Centre is an urban retreat spanning over 1,200sqm/13,000sqft. Reflecting a core vision to harmoniously unite the four natural elements of nature, Akasha features four corresponding spaces; earth offers nourishment in the lounge bar, water flows through the spa, fire blazes across the gym and air breezes through the studios.
